HUB2CARE
מערכת לניהול הטיפול בקשיש

Expectations Coordination Form - Foreign Caregiver

This document is not a government form, but an essential internal document defining responsibilities, working hours, house rules, and sensitive issues in advance - to protect both parties and prevent future friction.

Employer Details (or Responsible Family Member):	Caregiver Details:
Full Name: _____	Full Name: _____
ID No.: _____	Passport/ID: _____
	Date of Signature: _____

This document is intended to coordinate expectations and define the framework of work and responsibility in caring for: _____ (hereinafter: "The Patient").

Medical and Functional Information about the Patient

Medical condition and mobility limitations:

Regular medications (names, times, dosages):

Dietary restrictions (diabetes, blood pressure, allergies):

1. General Working Hours

The job includes living in the patient's home. Availability during required hours must be maintained while respecting defined rest periods.

2. Daily Schedule (Morning to Night)

General description of the daily schedule (wake-up time, meal times, activities, estimated bedtime):

3. Hygiene and Bathing

Details on bathing frequency, assistance with toileting, changing absorbent products (if any), shaving/grooming:

4. Cooking and Nutrition

Responsibility for meal preparation, preferred/forbidden foods, feeding times:

5. Shopping and Errands

Does the caregiver do the shopping? Frequency? Is escort required for errands (clinic, post office)?

6. Housekeeping (Cleaning and Laundry)

Areas of responsibility in the house (patient's room, living room, kitchen, bathrooms):

Expectations regarding cleaning, laundry:

Private/restricted areas for the caregiver:

7. Rest Hours and Breaks

Definition of afternoon rest time (hours), time for personal calls, night rest:

8. Day Off

Weekly day off (24/25 hours): From day _____ time _____ until day _____ time _____ .

Additional notes regarding holidays or special vacation days:

9. Night Work

Is waking up at night required? How frequently? Is there compensation for sleepless nights?

10. Privacy and Communication

Mobile phone usage - when permitted and when forbidden (e.g., during active care, meals, conversations with the patient):

Video calls with family - defined times and suitable location:

Patient and family privacy - prohibition of photography, sharing information, inviting guests to the house:

11. Economy and Food

Household Food: The caregiver is allowed to eat from the food existing in the house except for:

Personal Food/Pocket Money: Is a sum of money provided for buying specific personal food for the caregiver?

Deductions and Expense Participation: Agreed participation in electricity, water, internet (if relevant):

12. Caregiver's Personal Needs

Purchase of personal hygiene products (shampoo, soap, deodorant, etc.) - at the expense of the caregiver or the employer?

13. Leaving the House and Outings

Going out for walks with the patient (park, day center, medical visits):

When and if the caregiver is allowed to leave the house and leave the patient (e.g., during family visits):

14. House Rules and Restrictions

Use of electrical appliances (microwave, washing machine, TV):

Smoking - permitted/forbidden, where:

Inviting guests to the house - permitted/forbidden:

Use of personal space (caregiver's room):

15. Emergency and Communication

Emergency phone numbers (family members, doctor, Magen David Adom):

How to report problems, complaints, or questions:

Important Note: This document is not a substitute for an employment contract or an official agreement with the Population and Immigration Authority. Its purpose is to coordinate daily expectations and prevent misunderstandings. It is recommended to hold an organized meeting on the first day of work to go over all sections and ensure mutual understanding. This document can be updated by mutual agreement.

Employer's Signature

Date: _____

Caregiver's Signature

Date: _____

A copy of this document will be provided to both parties for safekeeping and reference if needed